

Justify

1. Strophe

And I hate you for a shattered friendship
For the promises you broke For your faults you can't admit
And I hate you for you cold deception
For all fakes and illusions and for my weak reaction
And I'm gratefull - for the inspiration that you gave me to this song thanks for feeding my frustration
So, I hate you
Oh yeah I hate you
My god I hate you
Oh yeah I hate you - hate you

Refrain

HATE
You justify my hate
When I get into your reach I'll spit into you face
You justify my hate
No more mercy - we're too far and too late
Hate - you justify my hate

2. Strophe

I hate you for opening my eyes and For breaking my back with the power of your lies
And I hate you for blowing my shell
Away from the inside and I guess it plead you well
And I hate you for a million of reasons
For my everlasting pain for making my heart freezing
And I hate you
Oh yeah I hate you
My god I hate you
Oh yeah I hate you - hate you

Refrain

Bridge

You knew me - When I was weak
And you blew me - Cause I was weak
You knew me - When I was weak
And you blew me - Cause I was weak
