

Run away

1. Strophe

Right now I feel sick
I don't know what I can do
About all the shit you spread
It made me looklike I'm a prick

Refrain

I run away
Away and i still do
I run away to get away from you
to get away from you
to get away from you
From you

2. Strophe

You made nightmares come true
I'm afraid you're a too heavy load
You pushed me damn close to the edge
I'm damn close too close to explode

Refrain

Bridge

From every side came your Verbal attacks
I used to listen And to follow your track
But this time it's different I don't hear a sound
Go fuck your advices Cause I'm no more bound
Go fuck your advices Cause I'm no more bound
Go fuck your advices Cause I'm no more bound
Go fuck your advices Cause I'm no more bound
